Will You Do Your Cooking on a Gas Range This Summer?

To all people who will put in a Gas Cooking Range during the month of May, 1905, the Gas Company will furnish them with gas OIL FREE for one month after the Range is installed. This will give the people an opportunity to become accustomed to the use of the Range at the expense of the Company, while the Company will be able to keep their men employed during this month to the advantage of all, as after June 1st the Company will be especially busy in extending their street mains and making other permanent improvements. Liberal terms will be made to all purchasers of Ranges when necessary. Call at the office, No. 213 North Main Street, opposite Depot Square, where you will always find a full supply of Ranges and Gas Fixtures, or drop a postal to the Company and a representative will call on you.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

Black River Academy and the grammar school at Ludlow have been closed on account of scarletina and measles.

The thirty-third annual convocation of the Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star of Vermont will be held in Brattleboro June 6-8.

The Brattleboro selectmen have voted to issue liquor licenses of the fifth class to G. E. Graffam, C. F. Thomas, F. H. Holden & Co., and George E. Greene.

Rooms at the Echo Lake hotel in Tyson are being rapidly taken for the summer, and a very prosperous season is expected. Two new cottages will be erected at Rescue lake at once.

Henry Crawford of Putney is confined to his house with his left leg paralyzed as a result of an automobile accident. His physician says, however, that he will recover the use of it.

The docket for the May term of the United States courts, which is to convene at Windsor, May 16, contains 23 cases before the circuit court, 38 cases before the district court, and 34 chancery actions.

Henry E. Adams, of Athol, Mass., is endeavoring to form a stock company with $50,000 capital to manufacture straw and palm leaf hats. If successful he expects to have establishments both in Athol and Brattleboro.

Charles G. Taylor, of West Derby has been appointed a deputy collector and inspector of customs in the Menphremagog district, and will be stationed at Newport for the present. Mr. Taylor has been principal of the high school at Newport Center for the past year. George Wilder has been transferred from the Island Pond custom house for duty at Newport.

There is talk of starting a Democratic morning daily newspaper in Bennington within the next few weeks. A canvass has been made among the leading local Democrats, the majority of whom are in favor of the scheme, but few have been found that will give the enterprise financial backing. The originator of the scheme is from Rutland and has long been connected with the newspaper business.

The new club house of the Macawee Club, near Reading pond, is about completed. The building is 38 by 38 feet in dimensions, and has a large dining room and kitchen on the first floor and six sleeping rooms on the second floor. There are also a boat house and barn on the premises. The club membership comprises several Woodstock fishermen. The preserves border on Plymouth, Bridgewater and Woodstock.

Professor George B. Howes of the University of Vermont gave a lecture before the St. Johnsbury Y. M. C. A. in St. Johnsbury, Wednesday evening, May 3d. His subject was, "Bicycle Trips in Greece." Saturday evening Professor Howes spoke before the Classical Club of Middlebury College on, "Glimpses of Modern Greece." Both lectures were illustrated by lantern slides from views taken by Professor Howes while in Greece two years ago.

The William C. Tracy Post, G. A. R., of Windsor, has offered the prize of a $5 gold piece to that member of the Windsor high school who excels in declaiming Lincoln's Gettysburg speech. Each of the classes of '05, '06, '07, and '08 is to select three contestants, and the best speaker of the three will represent the class in an interclass contest for the $5 gold piece. The prize winner will have a part on the programme for Memorial day. The matter on being referred to the high school was enthusiastically received, and preliminary arrangements for holding the contest are being made.

A "house warming" was held Saturday at the Newfane home of United States District Attorney and Mrs. J. L. Martin. The home is named "The Maples" and is situated at the corner where West street leads around the common, in full view of the public plot of ground given by Mr. Park, an early settler, about 1825 for the erection of county buildings and the generous common which was soon well planted with elms and maples, now making a beautiful little park in which plays a fountain, surrounded in summer by seats, inviting to restful enjoyment of shade and views of the hills.

The following editors of the University of Vermont Cynic have been elected: Hugh H. Watson, '06, Montpelier.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide is in Giving it a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article, and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and small nice, but the point is—do they eradicate dandruff and itching scalp? No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes a cough hangs on so long you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her, so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and la grippe. At the Red Cross Pharmacy. Prices, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
